Canadians Moving Inland After New Landing in Holland

Assault Force Firmly Establishes Back-Door Bridgehead on South Side of Scheldt Estuary

WITH THE CANADIAN FIRST ARMY IN HOLLAND, Oct. 10 (CP)—Ontario infantry today entered the town of Hoofdplaat, six miles east of Breskens at the mouth of the Scheldt Estuary, and tonight apparently had cleared the Germans from this town except for the western fringe.

The Canadian assault force which established the back-door bridgehead on the south side of the estuary firmed up its positions and advanced inland and along the coast.

The bridgehead established early Monday on the south side of the estuary 33 miles west of Antwerp, tonight had been extended to a width of four miles and a maximum depth inland of about two and a half miles. Two bridgeheads were established during the initial landings and these since have been consolidated.

Six miles south of the beachhead zone other Ontario troops attacked across the Netherlands border from Belgium, near the head of the inlet in the Scheldt Estuary, known as Savenaards Plaat, which extends southward east of Hoofdplaat.

They advanced several hundred yards without difficulty, then bumped into a strong enemy force and were forced back.

Heavy coastal guns on Walcheren and South Beveland Islands in the Scheldt Estuary shelled the beachhead area during the day. Because of bad weather, air force attacks on these gun positions were limited, but Canadian Army heavy artillery, manned by British gunners, blasted away at the coastal guns.

The Canadian position there now is such that army officers say the Germans cannot drive out the attacking forces and troops who come ashore in amphibious assault craft are fighting hard and well toward their objectives.

The Germans gradually are being

150,000 of Nazi Troops Are Cut Off

Russian Forces Crash Through to Baltic

LONDON, Oct. 10 (P)—The Red Army drove a band of steel across Lithuania to the Baltic Sea 14 miles north of Memel today, cutting off the German garrison in Riga and trapping probably 150,000 German troops in Lithuania and Latvia.

A Soviet communique announced that Russian forces had crashed through to the sea at Palanga, in Lithuania on the north border of Memeland, and captured more than 300 other towns and villages north and southeast of Memel, virtually sealing the fate of that seaport which Germany annexed in the Spring of 1939.

The effective width of the Soviet barrier north of the port appeared to be about 20 miles.

There was no substantiation of a Reuters News Agency report from Moscow that Russian vanguards reached the Baltic south of Memel.

The siege ring also was drawn tighter around Riga, capital of Latvia, with capture of 80 places, including Stropai, only seven miles southeast of Riga; Gauja, railway station 11 miles north; Ropati, ten miles northeast; and Saulkalne, 12 miles southeast.

Gen. Ivan C. Bagration's First Baltic Army thus had caught the German groupings not only in Riga, but around Liepaja and Ventpils, two other Baltic Latvian ports, and posed an immediate threat to the narrow strip of Memeland, and to the northern section of East Prussia.

The Germans were reported to have a concentration of armor in the northern cut-off pocket which probably would lead any attempt to break out. The Berlin radio declared the Russians were themselves using a battering ram of seven army groups including more than 1,000 tanks and 1,000,000 men in the most offensive that swept westward to the sea.

Already the pressure on East Prussia was mounting. A strong contingent of the Soviet forces that achieved the initial break-through in Lithuania wheeled southward and

Churchill in Moscow to Confer on War and Peace

MOSCOW, Oct. 10 (P)—Premier Stalin, at a gala mid-afternoon banquet for Prime Minister Churchill and the envoys of the British Commonwealth and the United States, today offered a toast to the future collaboration of the Allied Powers in a peaceful world.

Host at the elaborate three-and-one-half-hour luncheon in the white and gold hall of Sprodnovna Palace, the Soviet Premier rose twice to deliver speeches stressing the necessity for co-operation among peace-loving countries in order to achieve peace.

In his toasts, Marshal Stalin also paid tribute to the contributions to a United Nations victory made by Britain and the United States.

Mr. Churchill came to Moscow on Monday with Foreign Secretary Eden, for talks which responsible sources said should lead to guarantees of peace after victory. The British and Russian leaders spent the night, and the willingness with which the Soviet Premier greeted Mr. Churchill was considered indicative of his readiness to discuss the problems which will face the United Nations after the war.

In one address, Premier Stalin referred in favorable terms to the Dumbarton Oaks conference from which emerged the framework of an international security organization.

Mr. Churchill replied to the Soviet Premier's acknowledgment of Britain's war role with a toast hailing the might of the Red Army and its accomplishments.

High on the agenda of the talks between the two war leaders is the Balkan situation—to make sure the German and pro-Fascist spirit is eliminated in Southeastern Europe.

The question of what to do with Germany is, of course, one of the biggest topics before the United Nations.

Also prominent on the list of topics, it is understood, are discussions involving the

Smash Attempt to Reinforce Morotai

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, New Guinea, Oct. 11 (Wednesday) (P)—A Japanese attempt to reinforce the little garrison still holding out against the invaders of Morotai was largely broken up Monday night by fighter planes and patrol-torpedo boats, which sank or damaged 18 of the reinforcement barges.

One barge destroyed was 110 feet long and was loaded with enemy troops.

A spokesman at headquarters said some enemy troops may have succeeded in running the blockade, but no alarm was felt.

A large Allied force landed September 15 on Morotai, 300 miles south of the Philippines.

New Transport Launched Here

Signaling another phase of Victoria's varied and expanding war effort, a transport ferry-ship docked here on Saturday at Yarrow's Ltd., No. 2 yard.

She was christened simply "No. 50," and her sponsor was Mrs. Grete Johnson, the former Miss Hebbel, secretary to Norman Yarrow, president of the well-known Victoria shipbuilding company.

Taking the water on a day as fine as the victory objective to which the ship and many others have been dedicated, "No. 50" brought home forcibly to the men and women who built her, and to a small number of spectators present, the changing theme of the war and the emphasis upon attack.

For "No. 50," as yet far from complete, was a picture of utility and of lines, in the great yawning mouth at her bow through which, some day soon, men and equipment will lumber to the assault. She brought home to many the pictures published in magazines and shown in theatres lately of assaults upon enemy shores, and of men and machines surging forth to battle from similar vessels.

There was nothing sleek about "No. 50." She was built for service, to do a job efficiently and well, to serve the cause of victory. And her lines told the story of her purpose.

But if "No. 50" lacked glamour, she lacked nothing of naval ceremony and dedication. Rev. G. W. N. Wareham, R.C.N. chaplain, read the prayers as the shipbuilders made final preparations.

Mrs. Johnson, carrying a beautiful bouquet of red roses and fern, sent "No. 50" to her destiny.

Allies Will Destroy Aachen Unless Nazis Surrender; One Company Ready to Give Up

Lucky Thirteenth
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10 (P)—There's nothing superstitious about the yard bosses at Henry Kaiser's Swan Island yard.

Three days from now—on Friday the 13th—they'll launch the 13th tanker built on shipway No. 1. What's more, there'll be 13 persons on the launching platform—and 13 diners at the sponsor's luncheon table.

Allies Hold Corinth City

Full Liberation of Greece Seems Near

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 10 (P)—The Germans today admitted the invaders of Morotai were largely broken up Monday night by fighter planes and patrol-torpedo boats, which sank or damaged 18 of the reinforcement barges.

ROME, Oct. 10 (P)—British and Greek forces held the city of Corinth tonight as a base for the clearing of Athens, 40 miles distant, and the remainder of the Greek mainland. The full liberation appeared to be only a matter of time.

Headquarters announced that German garrison units were withdrawing northward, omitting even rearward actions.

A small force of British troops entered Corinth yesterday and found the entire German garrison gone. There was nothing to indicate the British would encounter any determined opposition along the rest of the route to Athens.

The Greek Government announced it was in a position ready to enter the homeland in the immediate future.

Allied land forces meanwhile had begun an assault on the little Southern Albanian port of Sarande, a supply base for the Nazi garrison on the island of Corfu.

British troops, aided by Partisans, took more than 100 prisoners and suffered only light casualties. In the first few hours of the attack.

British troops and Greek patriots were given a triumphant welcome as they marched across the southern coast of the Gulf of Corinth to enter the port city.

LONDON, Oct. 10 (P)—The historic German frontier city of Aachen is threatened with "ruthless" destruction by Allied artillery and bombing planes beginning at 10:50 a.m. tomorrow if the commander of some 1,500 enemy troops in the surrounded stronghold declines an ultimatum delivered to him today to surrender unconditionally.

For the first time in the war a German city faced obliteration by a land army. It was the first great test of whether the Germans were willing to see their cities destroyed one by one in carrying out Hitler's orders to fight to the death.

While the outcome of this ultimatum was awaited, a heavy October rain set in during the afternoon, bogging down the whole Western front, and late tonight Allied authorities said there had been no progress worth reporting during the last six hours.

Canadian forces driving to clear the approaches to Antwerp have consolidated their bridgeheads on the south shore of the Scheldt estuary in Holland. A field dispatch tonight said the combined bridgehead east of Hoofdplaat, 33 miles west of Antwerp, now is two miles deep and three miles wide.

This toe-hold behind the enemy's lines between the Scheldt Estuary and the Leopold Canal was established in an amphibious operation early Monday.

The official German D.N.R. Agency reported that a second amphibious force landed Monday night near Breskens, five miles west of Hoofdplaat and directly across from

Although most Allied bombers were held on this side of the Channel today because of bad weather, bomber crews were preparing to carry out orders to destroy Aachen if it does not surrender within 24 hours.

"On our airfields bombers are awaiting the final order to take off," Aachen's residents were warned in the ultimatum.

The Berlin radio asserted formation of fast Allied bombers flying over Western Germany after darkness fell.

The German radio acknowledged that the steel works at Bochum in the Ruhr were damaged considerably by an attack Monday night by 500 R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. Lancaster bombers. The night heavyweights dumped thousands of incendiaries and many tons of explosives on the German industrial city and left fires which flames watched for many miles as the way home through cloud and fog.

More than 200 Canadian heavy bombers took part in the attack, including aircraft from the Lion, Moose, Ghost, Thunderbird, Goose and Bison squadrons.

Three Canadian planes were lost. The night operations, which included a Mosquito raid on dock installations at Wilhelmshaven, cost a total of seven aircraft.

Planes Ready To Hit Aachen

LONDON, Oct. 10 (CP)—The aerial pounding that Aachen will get if the Germans refuse to surrender may be a good example of what the future holds for other stubborn points in the way of the Allied march on Berlin.

No Combat for V.C. Winners

WITH THE CANADIAN CORPS ON THE ADRIATIC FRONT, Oct. 10 (P)—Major John Keefer Mahony, of New Westminster, who won the Victoria Cross last May and who recently was posted to headquarters of the Canadian 5th Division, now is acting as a liaison officer with banking formations a few months as instructor in a reinforcement base and a spell in hospital.

Major Mahony won the Empire's highest military award for refusing to relinquish a bridgehead across the Melfa River during the fighting between Cassino and Rome last Spring, although he was wounded three times.

His hopes of returning to the Westminster Regiment, with which he won the V.C., were squashed by an unwritten law of the Eighth Army that no V.C. remains a combatant soldier.

Major Paul Triquet, of Cabano, Que., a V.C. winner, managed to return to his unit, the Royal 22nd Regiment, for two days, but Lieut. Gen. Leese, Eighth Army commander, heard of it and ordered Triquet to leave. Since then Major Triquet, who won his decoration last December during the bitter fighting around Ortona on the Adriatic, has been at a reinforcement base as an instructor.

Italy to Get U.S. Dollars

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (P)—President Roosevelt announced tonight the United States is making available to the Italian Government dollars equivalent to the Italian lire issued to pay American troops in Italy.

"The dollars... will be used by the Italian Government to pay for essential civilian supplies purchased in this country for use in liberated Italy," Mr. Roosevelt said.

The step was taken after consultation with the British Government. Mr. Roosevelt said, adding that Britain will continue to provide its share of an agreed programme of supplies to Italy but under different financial arrangements.

"It has been our intention to make available to the friendly Western European countries dollars equivalent to the local currency issued as pay to American troops in their territory," the President said. "This policy differs from that to be applied in the case of Italy since in the latter case it is subject to special restrictions reserved to the United States in connection with the final peace settlement."

When the Allied troops invaded Italy, American soldiers were paid in American-issued lire so that they might easily make purchases in Italy.

Bomber Group Charge Against Runner Dropped

LOANSPORT, Ind., Oct. 10 (P)—A grand larceny charge against Stella Walsh, of Cleveland, Olympic runner, was dismissed in court today on the motion of Prosecutor Kenneth M. Landis II.

The charge against Miss Walsh had been pending since November 10, 1942, when she was arrested with Harry Jakubik, 47, in connection with theft of clothing valued at $275.

Jakubik was convicted and is serving a ten-year sentence in the state prison.

War Correspondents Transfer to Paris

LONDON, Oct. 10 (P)—War correspondents covering Allied Supreme Headquarters wrote their stories, closer to the scene of action tonight.

Forty-five correspondents moved today from London to Paris.

Supreme Headquarters has been dribbling to the Continent for the last 2 1/2 months, and now nearly everything is in Paris.

Rumor Goering Arrested As Telephone Lines Out

LONDON, Oct. 11 (Wednesday) (P)—A Reuters News Agency dispatch received from Stockholm early today said an official telephone call had been received in Sweden from Berlin, indicating that the mysterious suspension of telephone service which has lasted more than 60 hours was not due to a technical breakdown.

A traveler who arrived in Stockholm by plane from Berlin yesterday said that so far as he knew there was "no political reason" for the interruption of the service, but Reuters reported that among rumors sweeping Stockholm was one that Goering had been arrested.

Speculation about events inside the Reich was aroused by the interruption of all telephone communications with Stockholm.

No foreign correspondent in Berlin has been allowed to communicate with his paper since 8 a.m. Sunday. The last time such a complete blackout of independent news was clamped down on Germany was during the early stages of the crisis caused in July by the military conspiracy against Hitler.

German propaganda services have been functioning normally the last two days, including even the broadcast summaries of the Wilhelmstrasse conferences for the muted foreign press correspondents.

Tuesday, however, the news agency service for the German press went out of its way to stress that Hitler had cabled a reply to a recent report by Ammann, Reich leader of the Hitler youth. The reply as quoted by the agency was undated.

Some observers speculated that either the curtain of silence has been drawn over the Reich while its leaders are once more considering the disposition of their remaining forces in the face of the resumption of the Russian offensive and particularly the threat to Germany's open-southeastern flank, or the smouldering political crisis has come into the open again.

Destroyer Lost

LONDON, Oct. 10 (P)—The destroyer R.M.S. Rockingham, formerly the U.S.S. Swasey, has been lost, the Admiralty announced tonight.

The four-stacker was one of the 50 destroyers exchanged by the United States for the loan of naval and air bases in 1940. Her last commander was Lieut.-Cmdr. J. C. Cooper, R.N.V.R.

Seven Perish in Saskatchewan Fire

KENASTON, Sask., Oct. 10 (P)—Six members of a Saskatchewan farm family and an infant visitor perished yesterday when fire destroyed their farm home, six miles north of here.

The blaze, which started between two and three o'clock in the morning, caused one of the worst family tragedies in the history of the Province.

Dead are: Harry Howells, owner of the farm; Kenneth Howells, his son; Mrs. Kenneth Howells; Maxine Howells, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Howells; Keith, eight-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Howells; Gwyllys, 14, youngest child of Harry Howells; and Milton Lebreche, 17-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lebreche.

Mrs. Lebreche, of Erwood, Sask., a sister of Mrs. Kenneth Howells, escaped from the flames and now is in Saskatoon hospital.

Officers to Shoot Retreating Nazis

LONDON, Oct. 10 (CP)—Reinrich Himmler, in a speech to officer candidates, has given orders that army officers must halt any sign of retreat, even by shooting those who would turn back, the Luxembourg radio said tonight in a broadcast recorded by the Ministry of Information.

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1944, by Southern Co.)

LONDON, Oct. 10.—Landing of Canadian and United Kingdom troops behind the German lines at the mouth of the Scheldt River has proceeded successfully, says the special correspondent of The Times at Tervuren.

German artillery on the Island of Walcheren is now more than half submerged under waters of the North Sea, and on the south fighting in Beveland Peninsula was active but without much success.

The Canadians crossed the frontier into Holland at a village named Putte. The occasion was marked by a ceremony for the Canadians brought up a band and played the troops into the village.

Inhabitants, who produced Allied flags, enjoyed the occasion greatly and especially cheered the tanks as they lumbered by.

However, the senior officer appeared suddenly while the band was playing—rather wrathfully because music interfered with his column's radio telephone. The band thereupon closed down and suffered the music of war could be heard in the distance.

Dikes proved an obstacle to landing equipment which the Canadians needed. Men stridden in the dark to hoist heavy guns up the steep, grassy slopes of 15-foot dikes while the Germans used machine guns.

Canadian and other United Kingdom forces repelled from the tops of the dikes and the Battle of Antwerp port began—a battle that means urgently needed supplies at an early date for the British armies in The Netherlands.

By daylight, reinforcements were sent under cover of a smoke screen which blotted out everything on both sides of the river.

This landing is designed to ease German pressure on Canadians along the Geopold Canal where about 10,000 Nazis are concentrated. Prisoners taken say they had been caught in one pocket after another ever since they retreated from France.

On the Leopold Canal bridgehead the ground is open and marshy with every building strongly fortified, and the Nazis constantly counter-

Artillery Firing On Bologna Area

ROME, Oct. 10 (CP-Reuters)—British units of the Fifth Army tonight were 11 miles south of the German-held city of Imola, on the Rimini-Bologna highway, after capturing Hill 362, and American forces advancing astride the main Florence-Bologna highway captured three villages and a key height 10 miles south of Bologna.

Long-range artillery already is firing into the outskirts of the big communications centre of Bologna, on the edge of the Lombardy Plains. Allied headquarters disclosed.

The bulk of the British Eighth Army continued bogged down along the Fiumicino River, in the Adriatic sector, but troops of an Indian division struck into the Apennine foothills from their extended bridgehead of some 12 square miles across the Upper Fiumicino, 14 miles west of Rimini.

Isle of Man Is in Complete Darkness

DOUGLAS, Isle of Man, Oct. 10 (CP-Reuters)—A flywheel, weighing about 20 tons, flew off the generator at the electricity power station here tonight and the whole of the Isle of Man, in the Irish Sea, was plunged into darkness.

The flywheel hurled part of the station as it struck through the roof, then broke up in mid-air and fell in various parts of Douglas after traveling nearly half a mile.

Nobody was hurt.

Further Cut in Butter Forecast

OTTAWA, Oct. 10 (CP).—Forecasting possible further cuts in the Canadian butter ration, the Dominion's butter production suffered a further decline in September, falling to 36,000,000 pounds or 7 per cent below that of September, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today.

For the nine months ended September 30, production totaled 244-

700,000 pounds, a reduction of 14,600,000 pounds or 5.5 per cent from output of the corresponding period of last year.

With declining production, Canada's butter ration of eight ounces per person per week already has been temporarily reduced three times this year by the cancellation of butter coupons. A fourth temporary reduction is being made shortly by the calculation of two more coupons for an estimated saving of 5,000,000 pounds of butter.

During summer, efforts were made to lay up larger stores of butter so that sufficient supplies might be available for winter use.

The Fighting Forces

Serves Country Well

CMDR. E. T. "TED" SIMMONS

Of Victoria, who more than three years ago sailed out of a Newfoundland port as first lieutenant of the corvette Chamblay, recently left the same port as captain of the new frigate Beacon Hill, with the rank of commander and as senior officer of an all-Canadian striking force.

Matching the gold on his hat were the ribbons of the Distinguished Service Order and the Distinguished Service Cross on his tunic.

Simmons was a youth of 29 when he went on active service.

Less than four months after he served with the first Canadian escort force out of a Newfoundland harbor, in June, 1941, he participated in destruction of a U-boat and capture of more than a score of prisoners. Lieut. Simmons' valor on that occasion won him the D.S.C.

Later he took command of his own ship, the corvette Port Arthur. He sailed her to the Mediterranean and in June, 1943, sank a second U-boat in less than ten minutes. For this action, in broad daylight, he won a D.S.O.

Then came his new command, quite appropriately, it was a ship built in his home town, and named after a section of Victoria famed for its beautiful parks and gardens.

Today, at 34, Cdr. Simmons guides the destinies not only of his own ship, but of other new warships which will be, in effect, "trouble shooters" of the seas.

Cdr. Simmons' wife and two daughters are living at Halifax.

Killed Overseas

Mrs. C. W. Tolson, 1218 Victoria Avenue, has been killed in the action in Italy, according to information received here. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Layton, Vancouver.

Soldier Home

Cpl. Robert Martindale, 1st Battalion, Black Watch Regiment, Montreal, arrived home from overseas on Friday to spend a month's leave with his mother, Mrs. H. Howard, 1273 McKenzie Street, before receiving his discharge. He suffered internal injuries in Normandy. In Victoria for the first time, he has decided to make the city his home.

The day of his homecoming coincided with his 25th birthday.

Colonel Now Home

Of 1040 Pemberton Road, Col. Walter Bapty has arrived home from Toronto where he was taking a refresher course, studying new methods in medicine and surgery at the Toronto General Hospital. He resigned from the army last May and will resume practice here. In the army for four-and-one-half years, he was in England for some time. Col. Bapty prior to going to Toronto was formerly O.C. 2nd Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment.

Outlines Reasons For Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is a duty to God, who has given humanity so many good things; to ourselves, and to our fellow men. Rev. Dr. A. E. Whitehouse, pastor of Metropolitan Church, told Kwantlans at a luncheon yesterday in the Empress Hotel.

The good things of life outnumbered the darker ones, he said, and a pause for thanksgiving was of healing value. "We should be able to look others in the face and thank God we were born," he declared.

For centuries there had been great men who despaired of the future. Dr. Whitehouse stated, and cited the despair of Wilberforce, William Pitt, Lord Shaftesbury, Durnell and the "Iron Duke," which had not been justified. Great issues, mathematically hopeless, were more often decided by impendables, he said, as the world had seen in the present conflict.

Even the darkest night had stars, and for the blind there was still the wind upon the heath. These and many things which people took for granted were the important things of life, Dr. Whitehouse said.

F. M. McGregor introduced the speaker, and Neil Pollock moved a vote of thanks.

The War Today

A P. WAR ARTICLE

Regardless of the reaction of the American surrender-or-die demands, that German bastion guarding the Maestricht gateway route from Holland to the industrial heart of the Reich can be written off as a military factor.

First Army salients north and south of the city have been merged to cut it off completely. The troops have access to the road network in the Aachen area for deployment toward the Rhine or up its left bank, leaving Aachen itself to its fate.

That deployment unquestionably now is in progress. The hole the Americans ripped through enemy West Wall fortifications above and below Aachen is wide enough and deep enough to make what happens to Aachen itself an anti-climax.

In the East, developments of even more immediate consequence for the foe were piling up as Russian armies on the north and south flanks of that long front forged ahead. Berlin commentators made no effort to minimize the seriousness of the situation. Monster Russian traps were closed or closing on Nazi army segments estimated in the scores of thousands in the Baltic theatre and

TRUE STORIES OF CANADIAN WAR HEROES

By GORDON SINCLAIR
Internationally famous journalist and author of several best-selling books on war and travel.

In some of the fastest shooting ever done by naval or tank crews since the beginning of armored warfare, four Canadians shattered five German Panther tanks in one minute on D-Day . . . June 6. Led by Lieut. Gordon Henry of Montreal, this crew included Archie Chapman, St. Johns, Quebec; Tom Reeves, Toronto; and Lloyd Seaman, Owen Sound.

Under a salvo of long range shells, their squadron splashed ashore two hours after the first Commando assault and moved a mile inland. At that moment it was touch-and-go on the sands.

If the Nazis attacked with armor now, it was up to Lieut. Henry, and others like him, to cripple that attack. Otherwise, brave Canadian foot soldiers would be killed . . . perhaps pushed into the sea.

And the Nazis did attack!

Hiding in low willows, Henry watched the German Panthers rush forward through the sands.

By radio he quietly told his own gunners, and those in other tanks, to hold their fire. They could have shot, with accuracy, at a mile. Instead, they waited until the Germans were 300 yards away, then shattered the enemy leader with one terrific salvo.

The next salvo blew a tank to pieces, and within one minute of the first red hot shell, six tanks . . . the entire enemy formation . . . had been blown to pieces. Lieut. Henry's crew got five of the six. There were no survivors.

Then Henry and his Panther-killers rumbled forward and got three more Panthers within the next hour.

In one hour and one minute, they stemmed a German charge, knocked out eight Panthers, suffered no loss and consolidated their hold on a small piece of France. And that was just one isolated case of Canadian heroism on D-Day.

Coldwell Advised Soldiers
Sent Overseas "Satisfactory"

OTTAWA, Oct. 10 (CP). — M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said at a press conference today he had been informed by Maj.-Gen. Guy Simonds of Kingston, Ont., a Canadian Corps force being received are "satisfactory."

Mr. Coldwell said he had not known of charges that insufficiently-trained Canadian troops were being turned to Canada yesterday, but he had questioned Gen. Simonds on the matter for his own satisfaction.

"General Simonds told me that both reinforcements and supplies received by the Canadian troops are satisfactory," he said in reply to questions.

Major Conny Smythe, of Toronto, charged that reinforcements being received overseas were "green, inexperienced and poorly trained."

Mr. Coldwell went to London by air last month to attend a conference of British Commonwealth Labor and Socialist parties and went on to visit Canadian troops in France and Belgium.

The C.C.F. leader said:

1. The Canadian Army medical service is regarded "as perhaps the best in Europe." Men wounded in Belgium or France in the morning are carried to England in air ambulances and are in comfortable hospital beds by evening.

2. Some soldiers asked questions about the Home Defence Army of men called for compulsory military service who have not volunteered to go overseas. They wondered if such men would be made available for service overseas if the need arose.

3. He saw 17,000 German prisoners at Dieppe, who were transferred to England in landing barges. He traveled to England on one barge with prisoners and found them a "motley crew," some not more than 15 or 16 years of age and others grey-haired.

The Germans were thought to have withdrawn their best troops and left this "nondescript army" to be sacrificed. A large proportion of the prisoners were not Germans, but Poles, Czechs and Russians who had been forced to serve and were "pretty unwilling fighters" who sang on their way to England.

4. The situation in France is "very disturbed." The underground did a "wonderful job" in assisting invading forces. But bands of young men and women were roaming the country in captured trucks with captured weapons. There would be a problem in dealing with such people, some of whom may have attached themselves to the underground forces since the invasion.

5. The atmosphere in Belgium was "very good" from the Allied viewpoint, with cheering children reflecting the feeling of the people. This welcome sometimes was extended in France but not as frequently.

6. A total of 1,818,000 houses in Southern England, including London, have been reported damaged by robot bombs but the actual number is less, as houses were put down as damaged each time they were hit and some had been hit several times. A house was counted damaged if only a windowpane was broken. A robot bomb blast in a working district might damage 1,500 or 1,600 houses, of which 400 or 500 would be made uninhabitable. From 8 to 10 per cent would be destroyed.

7. All parties in the United Kingdom are anxious to obtain close international co-operation. Even in their infancy, robot bombs have caused so much damage that it has been recognized international control is essential if destruction is to be prevented when they have been enlarged and their range extended.

Duncan E. MacKenzie
Dies on Mainland

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 10 (CP). — Duncan E. MacKenzie, 75, prominent citizen here, died at his home today.

Born in Kincardine, Ont., he came to British Columbia in 1903 with his parents and settled at Clover Valley, B.C. He was a telegraph operator at Hope, B.C., and later went into the grocery business here.

He was appointed market clerk in 1904 and became secretary-manager of the Royal Agricultural and Industrial Society, the New Westminster Fair, in 1911.

Surviving are two sons, Cameron, New Westminster, and Lieut. Dorothy MacKenzie, Victoria.

Passes in Saanich

Walter Oscar Miller, 82, former superintendent of the C.P.R. at Vancouver, died Sunday while visiting friends at Saanich. Born in Fordwich, Ont., Mr. Miller retired from the C.P.R. after 30 years' service.

He sent the famous message, "It is completed," to Queen Victoria in 1885 on the dispatching of the first train into Port Moody. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. W. N. Walker, Mrs. C. J. McNeely, and Miss Olive M. Miller, all of Vancouver.

Left $10,000 in Will

NEW YORK, Oct. 10. — Urquhart Sheffield and Constance Sheffield, 2450 Windsor Road, Victoria, were named beneficiaries in the will of the late Annie Kirk Belding, a member of the family of Belding Brothers and Company, all many-faceted, filed for probate in Surrogate Court. They were left $10,000 and jewelry, respectively.

Mrs. Belding died September 4 at her home, 1033 Fifth Avenue, New York. She was the first vice-president of the Association for the Aid of Crippled Children, which was left a trust fund of $1,223,452 by her husband, Milo M. Belding. An additional $2,000,000 will pass to the association at Mrs. Belding's death.

Harold Dolner, of New York, a cousin of the deceased, was bequeathed $150,000, also the income for life from a trust of the residue. Cash mums were left to many relatives and friends.

Commodore Green announced that the club had gained 49 new members since January. He announced a dance to be held on November 4.

An informal dance and refreshments followed the presentation.

Must Apply for Grant

Discharged men of the three services who have served 183 days or more must make application for their war service gratuity through their respective service.

Capt. P. H. Wheatley, M.C., M.M., army adviser of discharge affairs, stated: "Both men and women who have volunteered for service without territorial limitation, and have served 183 days or more, are entitled

Seek Elimination
Of Crows in City

Crows are proving a menace to the small birdlife of Greater Victoria, members of the Victoria Natural History Society agreed at their regular meeting held in the members' room of the Legislative Buildings last night. They decided to ask police of the city to assist in the extermination of the destructive birds. The game branch of the Provincial Government will also be informed of the crow situation.

The suggestion was made that a bounty be put on the heads of crows. The opposing argument to the suggestion was that young boys would use air guns, 22 calibre rifles and slingshots indiscriminately against the birds.

Several hundred slides, picturing wild plants native to South Vancouver Island and the Interior of British Columbia, were shown by W. P. D. Pemberton, who provided the commentary. W. Mathews was chairman.

Now Permitted
Free Passages

OTTAWA, Oct. 10 (CP). — Wives or widows of members of the Royal Australian Air Force who have married in Canada are eligible for free passages to Australia under a plan now in effect, the Australian High Commissioner's Office announced today.

Some 250 Australian airmen have been married Canadian girls while in training or acting as instructors in Canada and 23 Canadian girls, including two widows of men killed in active service, have already arrived in Australia.

More are on their way, but it will be some time before passages are available to all brides, the announcement said. First priority is to go to wives of men who have been discharged as casualties or on other medical grounds.

Applications are being handled through service channels and when approved travel arrangements are made by the High Commissioner's Office, which is the Canadian agency for the Australian Repatriation Commission.

Salmon Fishing
Continues Poor

VANCOUVER, Oct. 10 (CP). — Salmon fishing along the coast continues poor, and the annual chum run on the West Coast of Vancouver Island and in the Fraser River to add is not promising.

Sockeye fishing has closed in the Fraser, under fisheries regulations. The season is still open for white springs but the run in the river is nearing an end.

Bright spot of the salmon picture is the coho run, but no outstanding catches are being made at present.

He pointed out that one reason fewer sockeye were caught this year was that a number of fishermen forsook their normal salmon occupation to go after the more lucrative dogfish.

Handbook for Riders

"Boots and Saddles," a handbook for riders and those desiring to ride horses, has been written by Alfred W. Webb, in collaboration with James E. Margetta.

Mr. Webb resided here for 20 years, but now lives at Ottawa. He saw service in the 21st Empress of India's Lancers, 12th Manitoba Dragoons, B.C. Horse and 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles. Mr. Margetta served in the R.C.M.P., Queen's Own Oxfordshire Hussars and 9th Canadian Mounted Rifles. Mr. Webb's son, Gerald K., lives at 1411 Mitchell Street, Oak Bay.

Postwar Land of Opportunity

WHERE

Electricity

PLUS VAST NATURAL RESOURCES CAN HELP
PROVIDE MAXIMUM EMPLOYMENT

Canada, with its wide territories, favourable location, vast natural resources, and mighty reserves of hydro-electric power, can easily be developed into "a great postwar land of opportunity."

Fortunately, Canada is already electrically-conscious. Nowhere is so much electricity used per person. Today more than seven times as much electric energy is being produced in the Dominion as at the end of the last war. In 1943 our aluminum industry alone consumed enough electricity to supply all the electrified homes in Canada for 3 years.

Yet only one-fifth of Canada's water power resources has been harnessed. This power, increasingly applied to homes, factories, farms, and mines, can raise the entire nation's standard of living.

But such development can only be achieved by PLANNING—today! While there must be no slackening of our war effort, we can still prepare ourselves for future action which will create markets and help ensure maximum employment. Planning will establish a firm, sound foundation for Canada's after-Victory prosperity.

For over 52 years it has been the privilege of Canadian General Electric to contribute much to home and industrial electrification. Today the Company's ten thousand skilled workers are devoting all their energies, all their enthusiasm, to war. Tomorrow they will resume their peacetime job of helping improve Canada's civilian economy—through electricity.

Wren Wingate Now Sends Signals

joining the navy eleven months ago, Wren Wingate graduated in home economics from the University of Manitoba, where she was a member of the Gamma Phi Beta Society. Ratings, Wrens and officers arranged the latest technique and procedure of visual signals, radio telephony and wireless telegraphy in naval signal schools across Canada.

Little Theatre Presents Plays

The denouement of "Thread of Scarlet," dramatic one-act play featured by the Victoria Little Theatre last night, was a perfect O. Henry finish. It was handled with smoothness and restraint by the fine all-male cast under the direction of H. J. Davis, president, and veteran member of the society.

The scene was a small English inn where three phlegmatic countrymen related the murder which led to the hanging of a neighbor, that morning. The climax came when the close friend of the man who had paid the death penalty, appeared and was discovered to have a scarlet scarf and a bag of money in his possession. The handling of the unexpected climax brought generous applause from the large audience.

L. F. Lamb, as a worried juror, gave a professional performance. He also is an old-time member and was producing manager. A. Kerr, the dead man's friend, did a dramatic bit of acting. H. J. Davis and F. Spencer were splendid in their role of sympathetic friends, and H. J. S. Reynolds was the landlady, and S. G. Clark the traveler.

The mellow atmosphere of the setting was a credit to the Little Theatre group, which did all the construction work.

A clever episode, "Olivia and the Duke," showed a veteran actress discussing an arranged marriage with a duke. But thoughts of a wedding were forgotten when the agent announced a booking. Judy and Dick Turpin performed title roles with understanding. Edith Gibson was the able director.

The third play, "Sunday Costa Seven Paces," was an amusing skit in which a lovers' squabble led to a realistic fight between two girls. The victor did not regret the seven paces for Sunday fighting and the lover and his lass were reconciled in a novel manner. Alice Oldfield was the soft-voiced Salome; Denis Lockley, the jealous sweet heart; Eugene M. Johnson, the troubled lover; Joan Pope, a nervous and amusing friend, and Grace Tucker, the almost successful rival. Audrey St. Denys Johnson directed the play, which had a Mexican setting.

The Little Theatre Orchestra, under the direction of W. Press, played during the entr'actes. The plays will be repeated tonight.

From Europe

attacking. The fight is fierce as any the Canadians have yet experienced. Every village has been converted by the enemy into a fortress, roads are largely built on causeways, and the area is too confined for military operations. As for the British salient towards Arnheim, it is clear the Nazis have stretched themselves to the utmost to maintain a formidable force there.

The Red Army is now only a few miles from the northern frontier of East Prussia and is advancing in Lithuania at a rate of 15 miles daily.

The Moscow correspondent of The Times says operations along the Baltic Sea are designed to clear the Germans from Gen. Cherniakhovsky's right flank, where they have hung threateningly for several months.

Surveying the war in Southeastern Europe, The Times editorially says events are moving rapidly towards a complete German collapse in the Balkans.

The Russian front is now extending towards the Adriatic and Yugoslavia's liberation is approaching. The flood of victory some weeks ago began to swirl around the Carpathians and Transylvanian Alps.

What has been gained in the South is that Hitler has lost the manpower of two of his satellites and vast mineral and agrarian wealth—principal objective of his original descent upon the Balkans.

Hungary's defection must also cause Berlin anxiety, as the Magyar people see they have lost their war and would willingly get out of it.

Secondly, the Russian campaign has kept the great German armies from the defence of Germany, and, thirdly, not only have 18 Nazi divisions been cut off from Greece and Yugoslavia, but the Red Army has lengthened its enemy's defence lines by hundreds of miles. Failure of Hungarian defences will open the way to Vienna.

According to Culbertson

Many of the pet ideas held by the great body of bridge players are not in accord with expert theory or practice. Consider West's opening lead in this deal:

South, dealer.
North-South vulnerable.

A J 4
K Q 10 7
K 8 5 3
A K 3 2

WEST
A 3
K A 8
J 10 9 8
Q 7 5 4

EAST
A 10 6 5
J K 4 3
Q 2
K 10 9 8

SOUTH
A K Q 9 7
K 5 2
A 7 4
J

The bidding:
South West North East
1 A Pass 1 NT Pass
2 A Pass 2 NT Pass
4 A Pass Pass Pass

South might well have bid three no trump instead of four spades—but then there would have been nothing to write about. Actually, however, West made the four spade contract, just as easy. Without giving the slightest thought to the matter, he led the heart king—

The delegate of the International Red Cross, who has reached Paris, says 1,000,000 Greeks died during the German occupation, mainly from starvation and disease. There are no trains, no road transport, no coal and very little food in the country. Exchange rate for the British pound is 3,000,000 drachmas.

Discussing editorially the Dumbarton Oaks Conference proposals for world peace and security, The Times says that the key to success in the future of the world is the armed forces placed at the disposal of the Security Council will be used by it.

All, in last resort, will depend on determination of the Great Powers to make their alliance for peace effective.

compressed between this landing and the Canadian positions on the north side of the Leopold Canal. After bitter fighting in this area, seven to 14 miles south and southwest of the estuary bridgehead, Western Canadian infantry have established themselves across the canal and at the narrowest point the line is 400 yards beyond the canal.

Troops are closing in there on the main road leading north to Arrdenburg, 13 miles southwest of Hoofddorp, after having thrown back 30 enemy counter-attacks during four days.

Enemy forces, originally estimated at some 8,000, so far have shown no signs of withdrawing from the pocket to the Scheldt Estuary islands, where other German troops now are cut off from land escape by Canadian detachments which dominate the cutaway linking the islands to the mainland of Holland.

These detachments, bolstered by tanks, are pushing north beyond the neck of the spit which runs out to the islands, and are pushing north and driving towards the town of Bergen Op Zoom, 30 miles north of Antwerp.

Along the Leopold Canal the intensity of the fighting waned, although there was considerable enemy mortar fire.

The Germans have failed in their efforts to smash the bridgehead and are taking no further offensive action. Their losses have been extremely heavy and it was estimated by Canadians in the bridgehead that the equivalent of at least one German battalion has been wiped out.

On the Tilburg sector, on the right flank of the First Canadian Army, Polish forces under Lieut.-Gen. Czerwik's command were still held up about three miles south of the city.

Casualties during the amphibious attack on the estuary and during the first day's fighting tonight were reported "very light." Officers said they were far outnumbered by prisoners taken by the Canadians.

During the night this afternoon, the Canadian forces were well dug in in slit trenches with artillery fire the major problem.

Canadian Civilians In Paris Problem

PARIS, Oct. 10 (CP)—Canadian civilians stranded in France during the German occupation are keeping the Canadian Embassy in Paris working day and night.

The names of more than 700 Canadians in France are on the files of the department headed by Lt.-Col. Unwin Simon, of Toronto, in charge of relief and rehabilitation of Dominion civilians in this country.

Some Canadians have been put in prison during the recent round-up of persons accused of collaboration with the Germans. It is the job of Col. Simon's staff to determine whether the accusations are false, and if so to clear the names of the victims, some of whom are women.

Canadian women marrying Frenchmen must re-establish their Canadian citizenship. Others have adopted French citizenship and now want to return to Canadian status.

Capt. Roger Beaulieu, Montreal, lawyer, is working on these cases.

Pork Prices Up

OTTAWA, Oct. 10 (CP)—A Prices Board order, affecting pork, today made small adjustments in ceiling prices. To ensure continuity of supply for British Columbia, an area which obtains pork products from other provinces, all pork ceilings in the main British Columbia cities and on Vancouver Island are being increased one-half cent a pound to permit British Columbia buyers to purchase hogs in Alberta.

Ralston in Belgium

SOMEWHERE IN BELGIUM, Oct. 10 (CP)—Col. J. L. Ralston, Canadian Defence Minister, today visited Canadian First Army Headquarters, later going to Brugge (Bruges), medieval town the Canadians liberated last month in their thrust through Belgium, and paid calls at two Canadian Divisional Headquarters.

At Brugge the minister visited the burgomaster who earlier sent a message to Prime Minister Mackenzie King thanking him on behalf of the townspeople for the liberation of the town by the Canadians.

Burns Club Hears Of Two Peoples

Victoria Burns Club members last night enjoyed hearing an Englishwoman's impressions of the Scottish, followed by a Scottish woman's impressions of the English, and a commentary on both by Miss E. M. Bruce.

Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A., the Englishwoman, undertook to reply to a description of the Scottish people given at a recent Burns Club meeting by Rev. W. W. McPherson. She said they had loyalty for Scotland, but it was largely in absentia. "They will go anywhere, as long as it is far from Scotland," she said.

They were prominent as bank managers, judges and ship captains.

The highest expression of their loyalty was the way in which they retained their accent. She had found that sometimes the accent was thicker in persons least connected with the homeland. She concluded by saying her talk had been given in the spirit of Burns' "The gillie gie us, to see ourselves as others see us."

Dr. Henrietta Anderson, a Scottish woman who lived in London for six years, told of her observations as a school teacher in Whitechapel. Most of her pupils had been Jewish, and they had generally been brighter than the Christian children, partly because of better home care and nutrition. She mentioned that in six years she had never seen a Jew drunk, but drunkenness had been common among the other people.

Returning to London for three months in 1916, she had found less drunkenness among the people, with greater prosperity.

Miss Bruce described the addresses as witty and provocative. The English and Scottish were two of the world's most useful races, she said. She could give no judgment on the relative merits of the addresses.

Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Mrs. W. Jamieson and Mrs. S. Hensychurch sang solos, accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Cartwright. W. B. Grant read part of Burns' poem, "The Address of Beelzebub," and commented on it. Rev. T. H. McAllister presided.

Employees Honored For Safety Record

Employees of the James Island plant of Canadian Industries, Ltd., celebrating the completion of 622 accident-free days which won for them the general manager's prize, held a rally recently in their club-room on the island.

W. S. Thatcher announced that the employees had voted their prize money of $202 to Queen Alexandra Solarium. Speaking for the company, he said the employees' record could have been achieved only by their close co-operation. Urging continued "safety first" efforts by the employees, he said that another three accident-free months would make them eligible for "The Silver Lady," an inter-plant trophy.

A programme directed by Sgt. Paul Michelin and P.O. Mickey Francis was given. John Maule, Donald Hansman and Herbert Rowland arranged the rally.

with these words: "May God guide her and all who sail in her."

And as "No. 56" began to move the sponsor smashed a bottle of champagne across her blunt, purposeful bow.

On the platform for the ceremony, besides the sponsor and Mr. Yarwood, were Mrs. E. W. Izard, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Hayden (mother of the sponsor), Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. T. McPherson and S. P. Bommer.

Fewer Japanese Now in Province

VANCOUVER, Oct. 10 (CP)—George Collins, general superintendent of the British Columbia Security Commission, said today that 414 Japanese have left British Columbia for Eastern Canada since the beginning of 1944.

This reduces British Columbia's Japanese population at the first of this month to 15,845.

Since 1941 some 7,000 British Columbia Japanese have left British Columbia and now are living in other parts of Canada.

Your Daily Forecast

By EDWARD A. WAGNER
PLANETARY GUIDE FOR
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1944

Keywords for the day: Pleasure, ingenuity, opportunity.

Wednesday in General—The social angle is strong today, especially in the morning and prior to 2:10 p.m., which favors luncheon appointments, dealings with friends and associates. However, take care of necessary tasks and duties before pleasure. The rest of the afternoon and evening favors ingenuity, new ideas and new methods of doing things and while minor hindrances or annoyances are indicated you should be able to overcome them.

If October 11 is Your Birthdate—"Many happy returns." Famous persons born on this date include: Harlan P. Stone, justice of the U.S. Supreme Court; H. J. Heinz, founder of the Heinz pickling industry; Henry Dexter, sculptor.

Your Year Ahead—Forward matters having to do with friends, associates, social and financial interests. Advance your interests in new methods of doing things. Enjoy some travel if you can do so.

This original type of astrological feature applies to you on Wednesday. Look for your birthdate and date below.

March 21 to April 19, Aries—After 9:32 a.m. is favorable especially for matters concerning extra freedom, pleasure, sociability, associations with others, writings, conferences, ideas.

April 20 to May 20, Taurus—Forward matters concerning home, family, base of operations, work and service after 9:32 a.m. Be sociable and friendly, make gains financially or in your work, buy or sell.

May 21 to June 20, Gemini—Catch up with odds and ends of detail, keep busy, forward creative ideas, personal contacts after 9:32 a.m. Things tend to end better than they start.

June 21 to July 22, Cancer—Give some thought and attention to the state of your finances and possessions, seek to make gains after 9:32 a.m. Complete tasks and solve problems, enjoy some social and pleasurable activities.

July 23 to August 22, Leo—Advance personal interests and contacts, associate with others especially agents, relatives, friends, get things done after 9:32 a.m.

August 23 to September 22, Virgo—Solve problems, overcome limitations, particularly concerning money matters, possessions, inject some new ideas in your business or career interests, complete tasks and forward personal interests after 9:32 a.m.

September 23 to October 22, Libra—Promote friendships, co-operation, associations with others after 9:32 a.m., which is also favorable for making changes, plans and decisions and for solving financial problems.

October 23 to November 21, Scorpio—Advance ambitions, business and professional interests, solve problems concerning finances and resources, attend to accounts and complete tasks after 9:32 a.m. on Wednesday.

November 22 to December 21, Sagittarius—Make plans, gain the advice and co-operation of others especially friends and associates after 9:32 a.m.; decide, make appointments and necessary changes.

December 22 to January 19, Capricorn—Forward your interests in accounts, finances, business and professional interests, work and service after 9:32 a.m. Your judgment should be good and friends, associates can be helpful.

January 20 to February 18, Aquarius—Associate with others, look ahead, make plans and decisions for your future concerning distant or travel interests after 9:32 a.m. New ideas and methods are favored.

February 19 to March 20, Pisces—Promote your interests in work, service, wardrobe and necessities, effect changes or savings, attend to accounts, finances and resources after 9:32 a.m. Make the most of what you have instead of buying.

Observe Anniversary

Rev. Canon N. E. Smith on Sunday completed his 25 years' service as rector of the parish of St. Barnabas' and the services for the day brought together old friends and new.

The Te Deum was sung at the evening service as an act of thanksgiving. After evensong, R. Keane presented to Canon Smith a purse in the form of Victory Bonds. C. H. Skinner, rector's warden, presented an illuminated address written by Rev. William Barton, for many years assistant at St. Barnabas, who was absent owing to illness.

Mrs. C. Norman, president of St. Barnabas' Guild, presented to Mrs. Smith a bowl of 25 pink roses.

HARD-OF-HEARING CLUB

Glancing Over Sport

By JOE DELAHUNTY

THE DAY'S ROUND-UP

Much better batting and pitching performances from a squad of first-class ballers and long-distance hitters when they are right on form gave the St. Louis Cardinals their second world series title in the last three seasons. The Redbirds from the National League closed out the argument on Monday last by taking a 3-1 decision after Mort Cooper had pitched them into the lead by blanking the Browns on Sunday with a masterly display. Of course two long circuit drives accounted for the two markers on the Sabbath day, but Cooper was invaluable as he attended the American Leagueers after another to miss tying the record record by a singleton, a check being up by Howard Hank.

The Cardinals' victory was a long time in coming. They were down 3-1 in the sixth inning when they were leading 3-1 in the sixth. The Cardinals' victory was a long time in coming. They were down 3-1 in the sixth inning when they were leading 3-1 in the sixth.

"Hello, is that Frank Smith? This is Bob Thompson of the Imperial Life Assurance Company calling. I am introducing myself over the telephone because I know you are a very busy person. I should like to meet you and have fifteen minutes with you. Will Thursday at three o'clock be convenient?"

Because of gasoline rationing and other travel difficulties, every life insurance man is becoming increasingly dependent on calls by appointment. By telephoning he shows that he knows your time is valuable. So is his.

He is calling because he has something of practical interest to tell you. It may be an item of service in connection with your present insurance he wishes to discuss. He may have a timely idea to present to you. Whatever it is, it will be worth your while to say "Okay—see you Thursday at 3:00," or to arrange some other time mutually convenient.

Partners for VICTORY!

The men out there can't do it all alone!

Sure, the Navy can litter the bottom of every ocean with wrecked enemy subs—clear the sea-lanes—transport millions of fighting men to their landing points!

And sure, tough-trained Army lads can blast their way up beaches and smash miles inland while the deadliest Air Force in the world blows the very heart out of Berlin!

But not without our help!

We're active partners for VICTORY! We're the Fourth Service!

It's our job to give them the stuff to fight with—and keep doggedly on giving it... till the last victorious gun is fired... and the last battle is won!

Yes, the Fourth Service must remain steadfast to the job—support to the full the fighting men of the Navy, Army and Air Force.

So let's be ready! Ready with our fighting dollars to back up our partners—for VICTORY! Lend all you can—in Victory Bonds. This time buy one more than before!

Due to overcrowded conditions in Oak Bay schools, the erection of a new junior high school in the municipality was advocated by members of the Oak Bay School Board at a special meeting.

Newsman Put Out Own Paper

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 10 (CP).—The possibility of Australia's Labor Government taking over newspapers to assure the people of news was mentioned today by Information Minister Arthur Calwell during a discussion of a dispute which has left Sydney and the State of New South Wales virtually without newspapers.

The minister said in an interview the Government was concerned about the situation, pointed out that it had taken over coal mines to assure uninterrupted production, then said the same procedure conceivably might have to be followed to assure people of news.

The situation arose out of a disagreement of printers employed by The Sydney Evening Sun. Proprietors of other Sydney papers decided to support The Sun publishers by suspending publications in favor of a composite newspaper.

Some mechanical staffs and writers decided against working for the composite publication. Dismissals and suspensions resulted.

Today the suspended and dismissed newsman produced a four-page paper in competition with the four-page composite. The newspapermen made the arrangement with the Australian Labor Party's weekly publication The Standard.

As newspaper is rationed, publishers asked where the newspapermen obtained supplies. The Customs Minister, who controls the newsprint pool, declined to say whether he had authorized supplies to the writers.

Earlier this year many Australian newspapers suspended publication in a dispute over the rigidity of Australian censorship, which since has been relaxed.

Evaporated Milk Sold in Country

There is little or no illegal sale of canned milk in the Victoria area, A. B. Food, local foods ration officer, W.P.T.B., said yesterday in commenting upon news stories that Vancouver housewives had complained of unfair distribution.

Because fresh milk could be obtained daily in Victoria, Vancouver and the Lower Mainland, Mr. Food stated, sale of evaporated milk had been restricted to infants. In outside areas, however, the milk was sold to all customers, and persons in outlying districts could order it from mail order houses at Vancouver.

"It is generally known that Vancouver residents can drive outside the restricted area and buy canned milk," Mr. Food said, but he doubted whether country storekeepers sold "unlimited quantities," since they also were on a quota.

Canadian Pacific Share Dividend

MONTREAL, Oct. 10 (AP)—Canadian Pacific Railway Company today announced a dividend of 2 per cent (30 cents per share) will be paid on its ordinary capital stock on December 1, 1944, to shareholders of record at 3 p.m. on November 1, 1944.

The official announcement of the dividend was made after a meeting of the company's directors today and added that it "was in respect of and out of earnings for the year 1944" and payable in Canadian funds.

At the Theatres

ATLAS Dorothy Lamour, Betty Hutton and Fred MacMurray have left a trail of recent movie successes behind them, each scoring heavily in comedy roles. All three starred in Paramount's "And the Angels Sing," which ends tonight at the Atlas Theatre, clicked big in a trio of rousing hits.

CADET Hedy Lamour, co-theatre started with William Powell in M-G-M's "The Heavenly Body," which ends tonight at the Cadet Theatre, goes James Craig and immediately falls in love with him, despite the fact she is married to Astronomer Bill Powell. It seems her astrologer ordained Hedy would meet her love in a tall, dark and handsome man—and Craig answers the description to the letter.

CAPITOL Academy Award-winning Walter Brennan leads the featured cast of "Home in Indiana," the new 20th Century-Fox Technicolor hit, now at the Capitol Theatre. Also seen in the exciting film are Lon McCallister, Jeanne Crain, Charlotte Greenwood and June Haver.

OAK BAY AND PLAZA Although he doesn't do any dancing in his current role opposite Deanna Durbin in Universal's "Christmas Holiday," now at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres, Gene Kelly made sure of keeping his legs in good condition for his next assignment. Every day that the weather permitted Kelly could be found spending the second half of his lunch hour kicking a football with studio workers.

RIO Alfred Hitchcock's production of "Lifeboat," by John Steinbeck, ends its engagement tonight at the Rio Theatre.

CADET Erskine Hawkins is rapidly gaining a reputation as the hottest trumpet player in the world, and already several critics have rated him over the intangible Louis Armstrong. Hawkins has perfected a style which has never been heard on the trumpet before, because—believe it or not—he triple tongues all notes in the high register and actually hits C above high C.
